

CLEMENT CARELSE – ORGAN/COMPOSITION

Clement Carelse was born in Cape Town South Africa into a Long line of organists.

His teachers included Charles Peaker, John Sidgwick, Melville Cook for organ, and composition, choral conducting and pedagogy with Frank Thorolfson, and Keith Bissell among others.

He specializes in the English Cathedral choral tradition and is drawn to the French Romantic organ school.

He has played at Canterbury, Exeter, Salisbury, Litchfield and Wells Cathedrals in England, and Christ Church and St. Patrick's Cathedrals in Dublin.

Mr. Carelse became the Organist and Choir Director at St. Peter's Cathedral Charlottetown, PEI in September 2022.