

Irma Mulherin

Irma Mulherin resides in Grand Falls, New Brunswick where she owns and operates Broadway Productions, a theatre company and music studio. The company currently offers private instruction in voice, piano and flute and runs a community show choir for adults of all ages. Each year Broadway Productions produces an original dinner theatre that tours Northern New Brunswick.

As a performer, Irma's abilities are varied. She is an established mezzo-soprano and pianist as well as a multi-instrumentalist who also enjoys acting, writing, costume design and all aspects of the arts. Irma is frequently hired as festival adjudicator and workshop clinician and brings with her 25 years of teaching experience. As a writer, Irma has penned over 25 original dinner theatre scripts, all of which her company has produced and some of which have gone on to win awards and be produced across Canada. She is the recipient of numerous awards and accolades in both music and business.

Most importantly, Irma is passionate about music education. Her goal is to create opportunities (educational, therapeutic and entertainment) for all ages in the private studio, community and school settings. Irma also works as an English Additional Language teacher at John Caldwell School, teaching students from around the world in a diverse and culturally rich setting. She is a proud Rotarian, a lifelong learner, and the music director of her church.

When given the chance, Irma enjoys crafting, gardening and spending every possible moment with her husband Scott and their 2 adult children, all of whom are passionate about music and the arts.
