

Christina Underwood-Boyer

String Adjudicator

Christina received a Bachelor's Degree in Instrumental Performance from the University of Northern Colorado and a Master's in Double Bass Performance from the University of Texas at Austin, and has spent the bulk of her musical career as a professional double bassist and electric bassist, playing in a wide variety of styles from classical to jazz, tango, rock, country, musical theatre and more.

She has been teaching privately for 20 years, as well facilitating master classes and workshops, and currently owns Riverbend Strings, where she practices lutherie, teaches and runs a new strings program in rural Nova Scotia.
